CCSE Terms and Conditions

Exhibitor and or Sponsor/Partner shall herein be referred to as Participant.

1. OBSERVANCE OF LAWS

Participant shall abide by and observe any and all local, municipal, state and federal laws and ordinances in affect at the time of the event. Participant shall construct any exhibits to comply with the ADA (American Disability ACT).

2. INDEMNITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The Participant and CCSE shall indemnify, defend and protect each other and hold each other harmless from any and all claims, demands, suits, liability damages, losses, costs, attorney's fees and expenses which might result or arise from gross negligence or willful misconduct in connection with either parties' participation in CCSE EVENT or any actions of its officers, agents, employees, or other representatives, provided that (i) the indemnified party gives prompt notice of the claim to the other party; (ii) the indemnifying party has sole control over the defense of the claim, including any decision to settle; and (iii) the indemnified party provides the other party with all reasonable assistance therein. Except for gross negligence or willful misconduct, neither CCSE, Participant, CCSE Event Venue or other exhibit space provider, nor any of their officers, agents, employees, facilities, other representatives, or assigns shall be liable for, and are hereby released from, any claims for damage, loss, harm, or injury to the person, property or business of the parties or any of its visitors, officers, agents, employees, or other representatives, resulting from theft, fire, earthquake, water, unavailability of the exhibition facility or intermediate staging facilities, accident, or any other reason in connection with CCSE EVENT or any planning meetings, demonstrations, or staging. CCSE shall not be responsible for the security of Participant's equipment or its proprietary software or hardware information, and Participant shall have full responsibility for any theft or other loss, including any subrogation claims by its insurer. It is the responsibility of the Participant to maintain proper insurance coverage for its property and liability.

3. BOOTH ASSIGNMENT

Every attempt will be made to assign space as preferred by the Participant. However, in rare occasions, it may be necessary to re-assign booth location. CCSE retains the exclusive right to re-assign at its option.

4. RIGHT TO REFUSE

CCSE reserves the right to review and reject any Participant application without prejudice.

5. USE OF EXHIBITION SPACE

Participant shall not assign to a third party its Exhibition space or any portion of that space without the prior written consent of CCSE, which CCSE may grant or withhold at its sole discretion. If such permission is given, the Participant shall assume full responsibility for the conduct of the assignee and all its representatives. CCSE reserves the right to withdraw its acceptance of this application if, in its sole discretion, it determines that the Participant is not eligible to participate or that the Participant's product is not eligible to be displayed in this Exhibition, or that the Participant or any of its representatives fail to conduct themselves in accordance with normal standards of decorum and good taste.

6. EXHIBITION HOURS

Participants will comply with published CCSE Event exhibit hours. CCSE reserves the right to change the exhibit hours without prior notice.

7. SPACE EQUIPMENT AND SERVICES

Each exhibit space will contain 10'x10' canopy, one 8' table, two chairs, table cloth and identification sign will be provided.

8. CONTRACTOR SERVICES INFORMATION

Participants are responsible for providing or arranging all necessary labor in transporting, uncrating, erecting, dismantling and re-crating of displays.

9. CANCELLATION OR TERMINATION OF EXHIBITION

If for any reason beyond its reasonable control including, fire, strike, earthquake, damage, construction or renovation to the event facility, government regulation, public catastrophe, Act of God, or any similar reason, CCSE shall determine that the event or any part may not be held, CCSE may cancel the event or any part thereof. CCSE shall determine and refund to the Participant its proportionate share of the balance of the aggregate display fees received which remain after deducting all expenses incurred by CCSE.

10. PARTICIPANT CANCELLATION OR BOOTH DOWNSIZING

All payments made to CCSE under this application shall be deemed fully earned and non-refundable in consideration for expenses incurred by CCSE.

11. PARTICIPANT CONDUCT

Participant and all of its representatives shall conduct themselves at all times in accordance with normal standards of decorum, and good taste. CCSE reserves the right to eject from the event any Participant or representative violating those standards.

12. LIABILITY

Under no circumstances will any party to this agreement, any co-sponsor or the event venue or other exhibit space provider be liable for lost profits or other incidental or consequential damages for any of their acts or omissions whatsoever whether or not apprised of the possibility or likelihood of such damages or lost profits. In no event shall CCSE's liability under any circumstance, exceed the amount actually paid to it by the Participant for exhibit space. CCSE makes no representations or warranties including, but not limited to, the number of persons who will attend the Exhibition.

13. CARE OF BUILDING AND EQUIPMENT

Participants or their agents may not injure or deface the walls or floors of the building, the exhibit spaces, or the equipment of the exhibit spaces. If such damage occurs, the Participant is liable to the owner of the property so damaged. Electric wiring must conform with the National Electric Code Safety rules and all other applicable rules, regulations, fire laws, electrical codes and other laws of the city in which the exhibition is located, and of any other government authority maintaining jurisdiction over the Event Venue that affect the installation, conduct and disassembly of the exhibit. Combustible materials or explosives are not permitted in exhibit area. The Participant shall also comply with all reasonable requests of officials of the Exhibit Hall and CCSE with respect to the installation, conduct and disassembly of its exhibit.

14. TAXES AND LICENSES

Participant shall be responsible for obtaining any licenses, permits or approvals under local or state law applicable to its activity at the Exhibition. Participant shall be responsible for obtaining any tax identification numbers and paying all taxes, license fees or other charges that shall become due to any governmental authority in connection with its activities at the Exhibition.

15. AGREEMENT TO TERMS, CONDITIONS AND RULES

Participant agrees to observe and abide by the foregoing terms and conditions and by such additional terms, conditions, and rules made by CCSE from time to time for the efficient and safe operation of the Exhibition. In addition to CCSE's right to close a display and withdraw its acceptance of the application, CCSE in its sole judgment, may refuse to consider for participation in future Exhibitions a Participant who violates or fails to abide by all such terms, conditions, and rules. This application represents the entire agreement between the Participant and CCSE concerning the subject matter of this application. CCSE is not making any warranties or other agreements except as set forth above. Any amendment to this contract must be in writing signed by both parties. The headings used in this agreement are for organizational purposes only and are not to be used in the interpretation of the substance of this agreement. The rights of CCSE under this agreement shall not be deemed waived except as specifically stated in writing and signed by an officer of CCSE. If any term of this agreement shall be declared invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of the agreement shall continue in full force and effect. This agreement shall be binding upon the heirs, successors, and assigns of the Participant subject to the terms of this Agreement regarding assignment. This application shall in all respects be governed by and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of California. Participant agrees to submit to the jurisdiction of the state and federal courts in the County of San Diego, State of California. In the event of any dispute concerning the interpretation or enforcement of this Application, the prevailing party shall be entitled, in addition to all other relief, to recover from the losing party their reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in such dispute.
